

I C

Pragmatism, 4E Cognitive Science, and the Sociality of Human Conduct

O :
R FREGA (CNRS / I M M)
P STEINER (U T C S U / COSTECH)
W CNRS (S2C3 CONNE)

Program

Wednesday, December 7th
EHESS, Salle 8 – 105, Bd. Raspail, 75006 Paris

9 –9 15 W
9 15 10 15 M J ,U O ,US, Pragmatism and 7-E cognition”
C B
10 45 11 30 M W , U R , G , Enacting the moral self.
Combining Mead’s pragmatism with enactivist cognitive science”
11 30 12 30 R M ,U E ,G , The Humble genius: On the cognitive role of the human hand from the pragmatist viewpoint”
L
14 –14 45 J H ,E C N U ,S ,C , Acting jointly as a group:
singular or plural?”
14 45 15 30 P M R ,U N C ,C ,US, When a body meets a body: Autopoiesis, corporeal choice, and social cognition”
C B
16 17 J -M R ,E N S LSH,L ,F ,TBA

Thursday, December 8th
CNRS, Salle KS1-2603, Rue Michel-Ange 75016 Paris

9 30-10 30 M J , U K L , G , Beyond skillful coping - Situations and social ideals

10 30-11 30 I T , U P , I , "Habit ontology and the dual mode of social interaction"

C B

12 12 45 S S , U N C , C , US Emotion and knowledge: William James and the fifth "E" for 4E cognitive science

L